

Mirror, Mirror on the wall

This hanger reminds you that reflection is for all

Why hang Mirror?

- frees up classroom space for more hands-on learning
- solidifies the importance of reflection as a routine in your class
- privacy allows students to speak more openly, leading to richer reflections

Specs

Built to be resilient, like we're teaching students to be

Micro carbon fiber filled nylon that's tough and durable, like learners with strong reflective skills. Supports up to 25 lbs.

Works anywhere, because reflection happens anywhere

Three bracket options to hang Mirror on a variety of surfaces (concrete, drywall, or stud) to support reflection anywhere, any space.
