Get to Know Your Swivl Robot

Swivl Capture

- Install the Swivl Capture app on your mobile device.

A note about firmware:
- Occasionally your robot will need a firmware update. The Capture app will notify you when an update is needed. Select "Update" to accept.
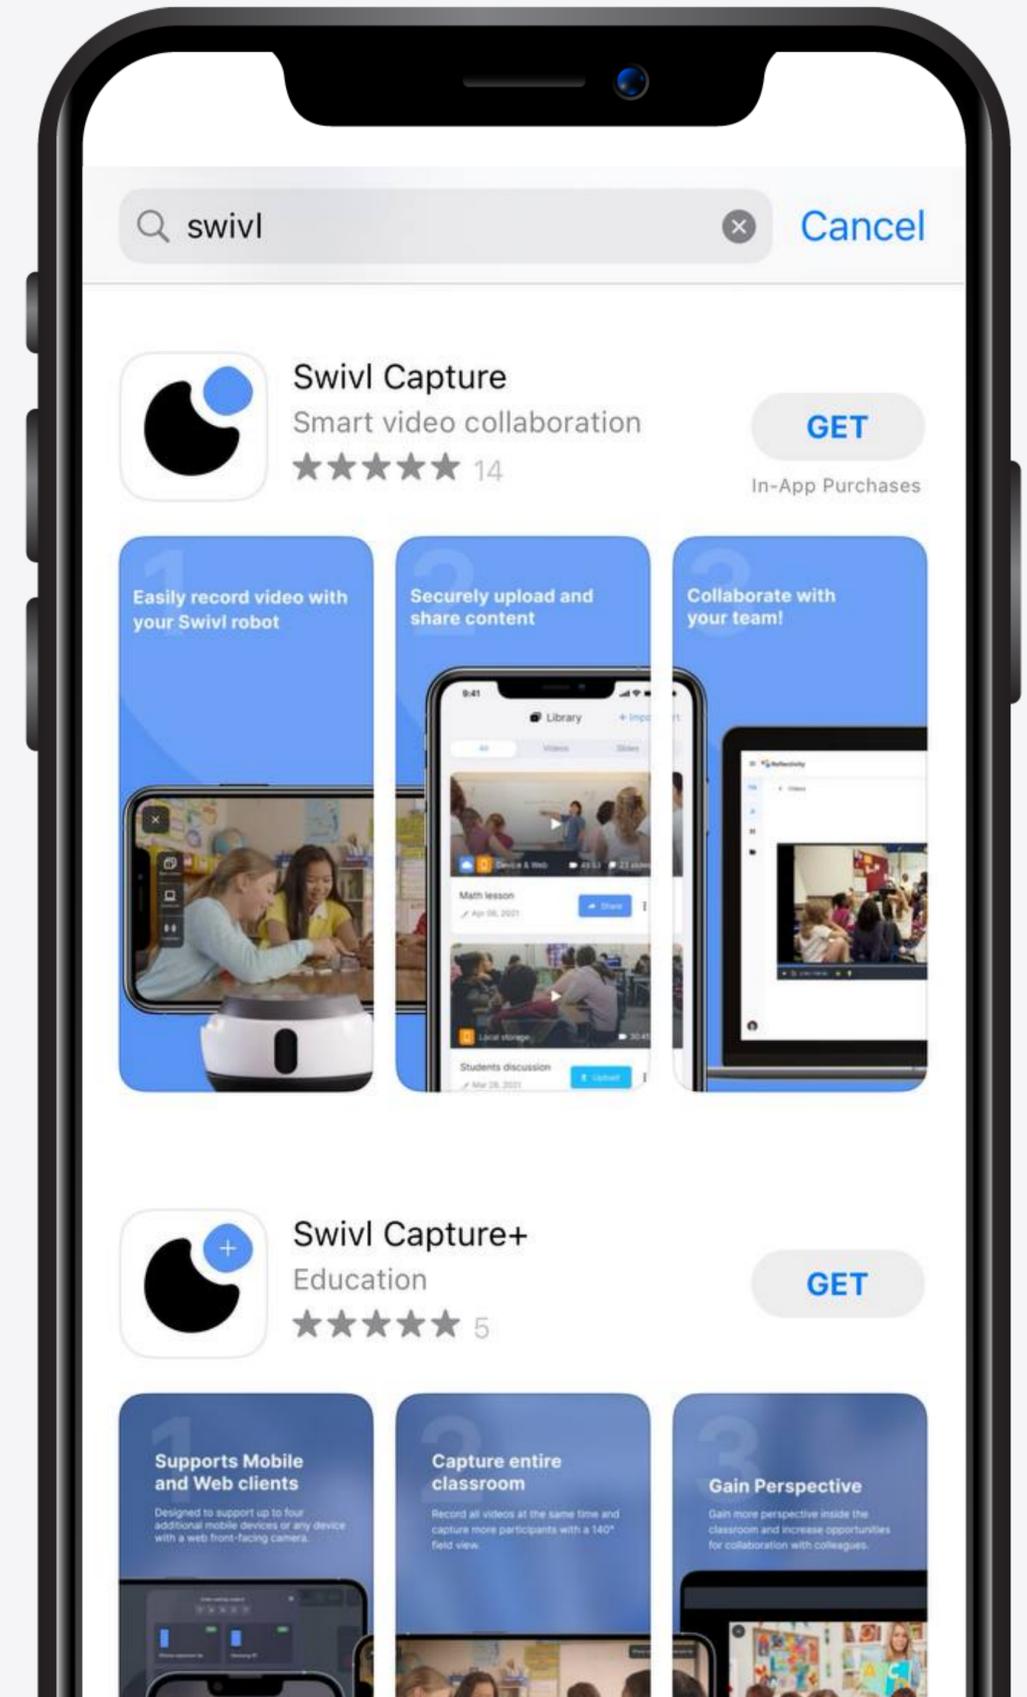

Get to Know Your
Swivl Robot

Charging Basics

- Plug the robot into an outlet using the USB charging block and the black charging cable.
- A full charge lasts for approximately 4-6 hours of use.

Charging indicator lights:

🔴 less than 40% battery

🟢 more than 40% battery

☀ flashing: charging

Charge 1 marker in the marker cradle

Mobile device connection port
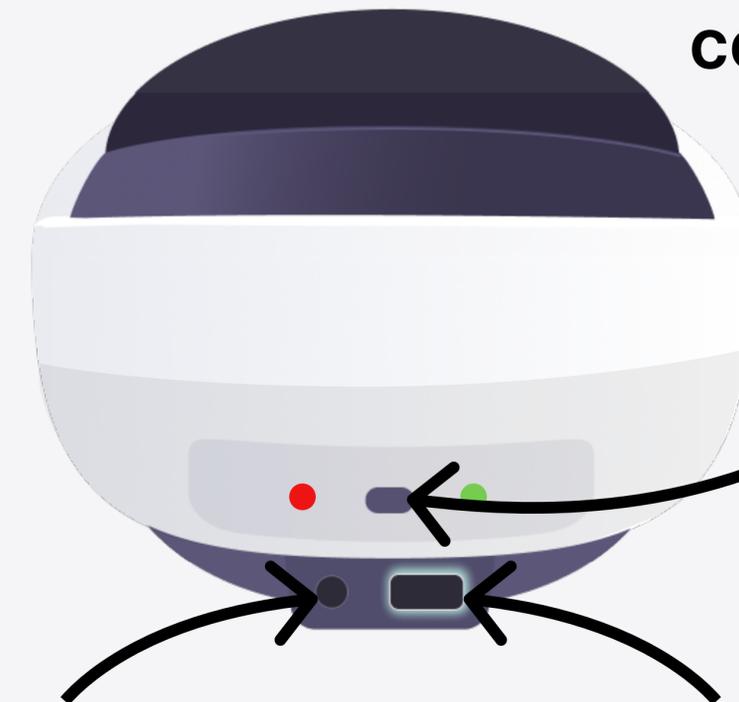

Charging port

USB port

for speakers or cable

Swivl Robot

Connection Basics

- Slide the grip to the left and out to change the shim size to fit your mobile device snugly.
- Connect your mobile device using the appropriate connection cable in your kit.

Connection indicator lights:

🔴 no connection

🟢 connection successful

Adjustable Grip with shim

Marker connection indicator

Mobile device connection indicator
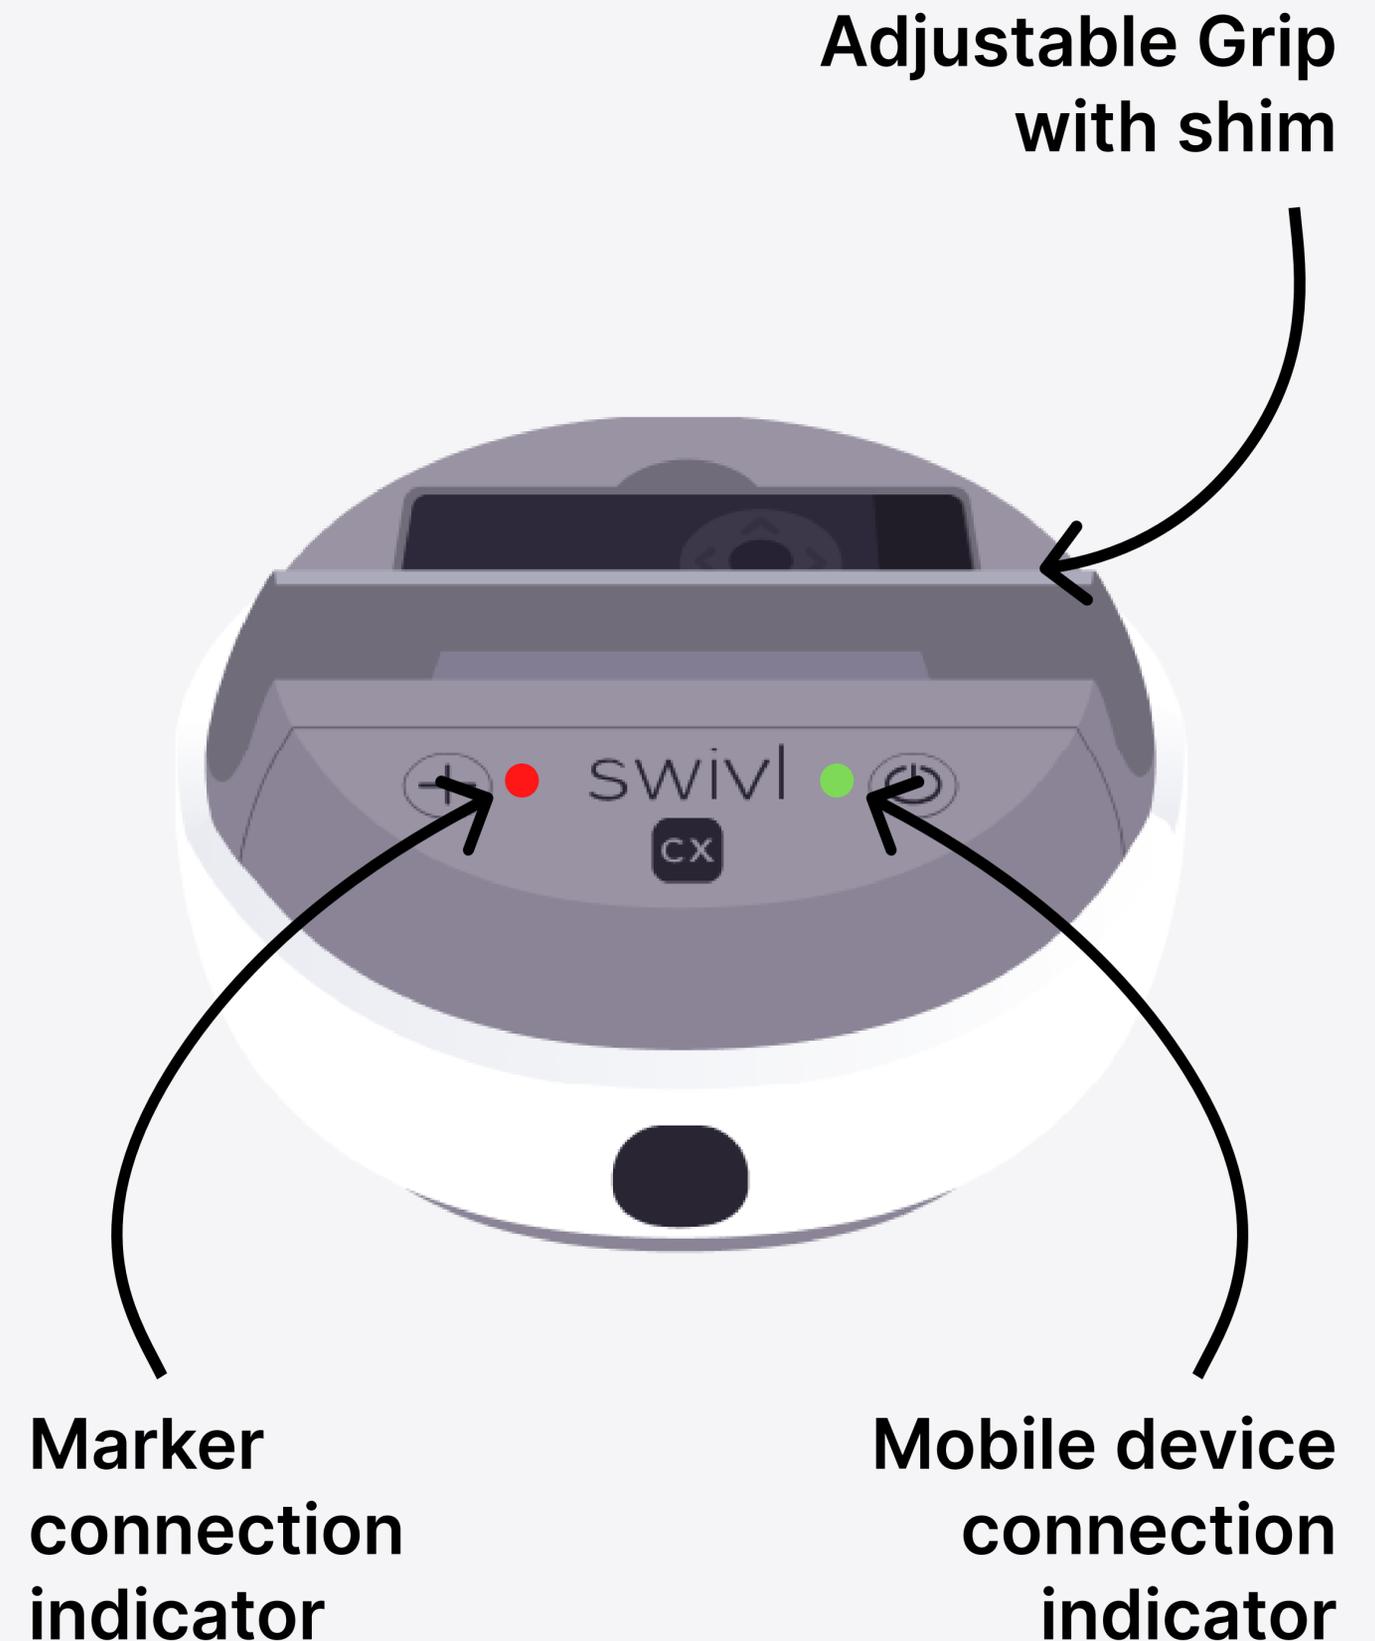

Get to Know Your
Swivl Robot

Marker Basics

- Your marker tracks you and collects audio.
- Wear the marker on the lanyard or clip at heart height to get the best video and audio quality.
- Maintain a line of sight with the black sensor on the front of the Swivl Robot when wearing the marker.

Microphone

Directional arrows

Manually control
Swivl movement

Center button

Pause /
Start tracking

LED light

Indicates whether marker is Primary (white) or Secondary (color)